Title: School-Community Relations
Code: KA
Book: WJCC Policy Manual
Section K: School-Community Relations

The Williamsburg-James City County School Board recognizes that good school-community relations are essential to securing public input and public support for educational programs. The school division sets goals and standards for school-community relations and will regularly evaluate its programs for maintaining open channels of communication and good relations with parents, community organizations, other governmental organizations, non-profit organizations, businesses and industries and the community at large.

Through its school-community relations program, the school board encourages the community to:

- take an active interest in the schools and participate in school activities;
- place a high priority on education and make funds available for an educational system that supports learning for all children; and
- establish partnerships with the schools to enhance learning opportunities.
